

Magic Spell: Thursday 15th July.

1). Can you underline the direct speech in these sentences and then punctuate them using inverted commas?

Footballs coming home sang the class of excited children.

The girl shouted I don't want my peas and threw them on the floor.

Be quiet! the teacher said whilst eating a biscuit, and no you can't have any!

2). Read these sentences, can you circle the word that is spelled incorrectly? Write the correct spelling in the box next to it.

1. Lily's birthday is in Februry.

2. The positshun of the earth moves during the day.

3. We are learning how to measure wate.

4. What hight is Dad compared to Mike?

5. That scarf is diferent to my one.

4. Underline the subordinate clause in these sentences. Remember it is the part of the sentence that wouldn't make sense on it's own and gives us extra information!

- My dog's fur is very curly, which means it's hard to brush.
- Go and get a sticker from Mr Brown, who is standing at the finish line.
- Oranges, which contain lots of vitamins, are really good for you.

5. Tick the sentences that are in the present perfect.

- You need to line up because the bell has rung.
- Sam had a headache at lunchtime because he didn't drink enough water.
- If you have finished your dinner, you can go out to play.
- I didn't buy an ice-cream.
- Amanda called for you earlier.